

PROCLAMATION

To Recognize

York Habitat for Humanity and the Hanline Family

WHEREAS, the Borough of Jacobus recognizes the need for quality and affordable family housing in our community for those in need, and

WHEREAS, York Habitat for Humanity assists local families in reaching their goals of quality home ownership, and

WHEREAS, the Hanline Family Build provides an opportunity for volunteers of the York community and neighbors of Jacobus Borough to assist a deserving family in achieving home ownership in a dignified manner, and

WHEREAS, the staff and volunteers of Habitat for Humanity unselfishly give their time, resources, and talents, and

WHEREAS, the Hanline Family will work directly with the construction of their new home, putting personal "sweat equity" and "skin in the game", and

WHEREAS, the new Hanline Family home will provide full access and living space for Allen Hanline and new friendships and opportunities for Jacob Hanline, and

WHEREAS, the new Hanline Family home will provide generational pride in home ownership, and

WHEREAS, Jacobus Borough sincerely welcomes the Hanline Family to our community, and

WHEREAS, Jacobus Borough wishes the Hanline Family happiness, success, and good luck as they begin to achieve their dream and gratification of home ownership with this ground breaking,

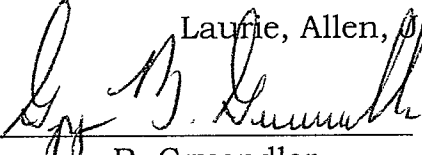

THEREFORE, be it proclaimed that the Hanline Family be congratulated on beginning a new and promising chapter in their lives.

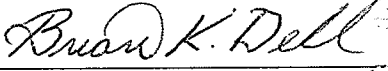

Let it hereby be heard, this Proclamation, adopted on this 7th day of September, 2013, is presented to

The Hanline Family,

Laurie, Allen, Jacob Hanline and Christine Heinrich

Gregory B. Gruendler,
